

SECTION 8 RENT SUBSIDY HOUSING CHOICE VOUCHER PROGRAM

WHAT IT IS AND HOW IT WORKS:

The Housing Assistance Payments Program was authorized by Congress under Section 8 of the Housing & Community Development Act of 1974. Tioga Opportunities, Inc. currently administers the program for the New York State Division of Housing and Community Renewal.

In order to qualify, the family income must fall within the range shown on the following table. Income means the total income from all sources of all adult family members, including income from assets.

FAMILY INCOME LIMITS

in household	Income Limit
1	25,350
2	28,950
3	32,550
4	36,150
5	39,050
6	41,950
7	44,850
8	47,750

The purpose of the program is to assist the elderly, handicapped, disabled and very low-income families in meeting the cost of rental housing utilities. This is done by making a monthly rental payment to the landlord on behalf of a participating family. The amount paid toward the rent is determined by family income, medical expenses, childcare and utilities paid by the family.

Under the Voucher Program, a family may pay more (or less) than 30% of their adjusted income depending on the cost of the unit they choose. If the unit costs (including utilities) are more than the Payment Standard, the family will pay more than 30% of adjusted monthly income towards rent and/or utilities.

Pre-application and initial interviews are given over the phone or in person by a staff person of Tioga Opportunities, Inc. Housing Services. An assessment of the applicant's potential eligibility and a brief description of the program is given. The family is placed on a waiting list per HUD's January 1, 2004 ruling stating that all applications are to be filed per applicant date and time of application.

After the application has been reviewed, a letter will be sent out stating it has been received and placed on the waiting list. Applicants must phone in with any updates or change in address.

HUD Occupancy Standards are based on the principle of "no more than 2 persons per bedroom" and on the composition of the household resulting in the following standards:

Unit Size	Minimum - Maximum in Household
1 Bedroom	1 - 2
2 Bedroom	2 - 4
3 Bedroom	4 - 6
4 Bedroom	6 - 8

Selection of applicants from the waiting list must be based on the date and time of application. Verification of income, assets, medical expenses, and any other necessary data is required. The family has 60 days from the date the Voucher is issued to locate an acceptable rental unit, with up to two additional 30-day extensions granted, if needed.

HUD determines a Payment Standard for the area based on rental surveys. The current Payment Standards are:

0 Bedroom - $602
1 Bedroom - $634
2 Bedroom - $812
3 Bedroom - $1079
4 Bedroom - $1192

These rents are subject to change annually per economic conditions. A Utility Schedule approved by HUD determines an allowance given the tenant if they supply their own utilities.

A unit inspection is required to determine whether the unit meets the required Housing Quality Standards set by HUD.

Once it has been determined that all applicable program requirements have been met, the landlord is notified, and the necessary documents are executed:

- A Lease between the tenant and landlord;
- The Housing Assistance Payments Contract between
- Tioga Opportunities, Inc. and the landlord.

Recertifications are done on an annual basis to redetermine the eligibility of the family at lease renewal. Interim recertifications may be required due to change in family income or structure.

The guidelines for administering the Section 8 Existing Program are set forth in the Public Housing Agency Administrative Practices Handbook, published by the Department of Housing and Urban Development and in the Federal Register. Periodic field audits are conducted by the area office to monitor the program and ensure compliance with HUD's rules and regulations.

- Section 8 Moderate Rehabilitation (24 CFR 882)

The U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development maintains a national repository of debts owed to Public Housing Agencies (PHAs) or Section 8 landlords and adverse information of former participants who have voluntarily or involuntarily terminated participation in one of the above-listed HUD rental assistance programs. This information is maintained within HUD's Enterprise Income Verification (EIV) system, which is used by Public Housing Agencies (PHAs) and their management agents to verify employment and income information of program participants, as well as, to reduce administrative and rental assistance payment errors. The EIV system is designed to assist PHAs and HUD in ensuring that families are eligible to participate in HUD rental assistance programs and determining the correct amount of rental assistance a family is eligible for. All PHAs are required to use this system in accordance with HUD regulations at 24 CFR 5.233.

HUD requires PHAs, which administers the above-listed rental housing programs, to report certain information at the conclusion of your participation in a HUD rental assistance program. This notice provides you with information on what information the PHA is required to provide HUD, who will have access to this information, how this information is used and your rights. PHAs are required to provide this notice to all applicants and program participants and you are required to acknowledge receipt of this notice by signing page 2. Each adult household member must sign this form.

What information about you and your tenancy does HUD collect from the PHA?

The following information is collected about each member of your household (family composition): full name, date of birth, and Social Security Number.

The following adverse information is collected once your participation in the housing program has ended, whether you voluntarily or involuntarily move out of an assisted unit:

1. Amount of any balance you owe the PHA or Section 8 landlord (up to $500,000) and explanation for balance owed (i.e. unpaid rent, retroactive rent (due to unreported income and/ or change in family composition) or other charges such as damages, utility charges, etc.); and
2. Whether or not you have entered into a repayment agreement for the amount that you owe the PHA; and
3. Whether or not you have defaulted on a repayment agreement; and
4. Whether or not the PHA has obtained a judgment against you; and
5. Whether or not you have filed for bankruptcy; and
6. The negative reason(s) for your end of participation or any negative status (i.e., abandoned unit, fraud, lease violations, criminal activity, etc.) as of the end of participation date.

Who will have access to the information collected?

This information will be available to HUD employees, PHA employees, and contractors of HUD and PHAs.

How will this information be used?

PHAs will have access to this information during the time of application for rental assistance and reexamination of family income and composition for existing participants. PHAs will be able to access this information to determine a family's suitability for initial or continued rental assistance, and avoid providing limited Federal housing assistance to families who have previously been unable to comply with HUD program requirements. If the reported information is accurate, a PHA may terminate your current rental assistance and deny your future request for HUD rental assistance, subject to PHA policy.

How long is the debt owed and termination information maintained in EIV?

Debt owed and termination information will be maintained in EIV for a period of up to ten (10) years from the end of participation date or such other period consistent with State Law.

What are my rights?

In accordance with the Federal Privacy Act of 1974, as amended (5 USC 552a) and HUD regulations pertaining to its implementation of the Federal Privacy Act of 1974 (24 CFR Part 16), you have the following rights:

1. To have access to your records maintained by HUD, subject to 24 CFR Part 16.
2. To have an administrative review of HUD's initial denial of your request to have access to your records maintained by HUD.
3. To have incorrect information in your record corrected upon written request.
4. To file an appeal request of an initial adverse determination on correction or amendment of record request within 30 calendar days after the issuance of the written denial.
5. To have your record disclosed to a third party upon receipt of your written and signed request.

What do I do if I dispute the debt or termination information reported about me?

If you disagree with the reported information, you should contact in writing the PHA who has reported this information about you. The PHA's name, address, and telephone numbers are listed on the Debts Owed and Termination Report. You have a right to request and obtain a copy of this report from the PHA. Inform the PHA why you dispute the information and provide any documentation that supports your dispute. HUD's record retention policies at 24 CFR Part 908 and 24 CFR Part 982 provide that the PHA may destroy your records three years from the date your participation in the program ends. To ensure the availability of your records, disputes of the original debt or termination information must be made within three years from the end of participation date; otherwise the debt and termination information will be presumed correct. Only the PHA who reported the adverse information about you can delete or correct your record.

Your filing of bankruptcy will not result in the removal of debt owed or termination information from HUD's EIV system. However, if you have included this debt in your bankruptcy filing and/or this debt has been discharged by the bankruptcy court, your record will be updated to include the bankruptcy indicator, when you provide the PHA with documentation of your bankruptcy status.

The PHA will notify you in writing of its action regarding your dispute within 30 days of receiving your written dispute. If the PHA determines that the disputed information is incorrect, the PHA will update or delete the record. If the PHA determines that the disputed information is correct, the PHA will provide an explanation as to why the information is correct.
